

HARVEST EDUCATION FOUNDATION
SCHOLARSHIPS & GRANTS FOR CAREERS IN THE
RV & CAMPGROUND INDUSTRY
2012-2013 ACADEMIC YEAR

Dear Applicant:

The recreation vehicle and campground business in Michigan has never been better. Its record growth promises a bright future for people wishing to make a career in the RV and/or campground industry. We need more trained professionals to enter our business.

If you're willing to dedicate your career goals to the RV and campground business, we're willing to help with financial aid.

What types of careers are there?

Like most major industries, there are careers in engineering, marketing, management, service, design, and human resources . . . any career discipline that would service the needs of this large industry.

What types of scholarships and grants are available?

The HARVEST foundation will make financial aid available to students enrolled at any accredited university or college. The amount of the awards may vary based on individual needs and qualifications.

How does a student qualify?

Students must forward a copy of the application to the HARVEST foundation office. The awards will be made based on the applicant's ability to show that his/her educational goals are consistent with industry goals. The application's presentation and thoroughness weigh heavily. The HARVEST foundation will base its decisions on need and/or merit.

When are the applications due?

Applications are due at the HARVEST foundation office no later than March 28, 2011, for the fall semester of the coming school year. All information must be completed for consideration.

Is there job placement?

The HARVEST foundation will make every effort to coordinate student's full-time or summer job needs with industry members.

When are the awards announced?

Notifications and announcements are made in May.

Sincerely,

The HARVEST Education Foundation
Board of Trustees
